FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My thanks to Fr. Matthias for celebrating the Masses this past weekend. My nephew's wedding at Most Precious Blood Catholic Church in Corpus was a beautiful celebration. It was great being with my family and relatives.

FESTIVAL NEWS TO DATE

As of this past Tuesday, we are 3-4% from achieving our goal of $75,000. However, there are bills and donations still pending. Again, I want to thank all of you very much for the success of this year's festival. I appreciate all your hard work. I thank Glen Braune and Drew Engelke for taking pictures of the festival. (P.S. I am not getting any haircuts, just in case. Ha!)

PROCLAIM: Our journey of faith through these Sundays of Ordinary Time has been marked by calls to re-examine the attitudes and behaviors that shaped our decision-making processes. Today we are called to take a keen look at our understanding of the sacrament of marriage. Divorce, as presented in today's television shows and movies, is often seen as the first resort when a relationship is in trouble. In this view, marriage is depicted as something that is as easily thrown away as a small piece of trash. If we believe that Jesus Christ is at the foundation of every sacramental marriage, then today's worldview is simply turned on its head. As we listen to today's scriptures, let us be mindful of family, friends, and members of our communities who have struggle with the difficult issue of irreconcilable marriages. Let us also pray that God will strengthen every couple who have committed themselves to love, honor, and cherish on another.

ACTS MISSIONS CONVENTION

If you have ever made an ACTS Retreat, you don't want to miss the 1st Annual ACTS Missions Convention, Oct. 12-15, 2006 at the San Fernando Cathedral City Center, sponsored by ACTS Missions. Speakers will be Fr. Ken Hannon, OMI, and Sr. Mary Fagan, SHSp; workshops on Teen ACTS, retreats, prayer, panel discussions and an exceptional concert by David Kauffman. This is a great opportunity to live the "C" community in ACTS. Space is limited. Register on line at www.actsmissions.org or call Libby Roussin at 210-342-1077

BEGINNING EXPERIENCE

Last week, Victoria Garcia mentioned that the Beginning Experience Retreat is designed to help divorced, separated, or widowed individuals. This retreat will be held in San Antonio at the Mexican American Cultural Center, October 20-22. I highly recommend this retreat for anyone who may be hurting emotionally and spiritually. If you need any further information, please call Victoria Garcia, in the evening, at 303-3502 or register at the church office.
